Welfare of Handloom Weavers

3810. SHRI B.K. HARIPRASAD:

SHRI NYODEK YONGGAM:

Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a) what are the recommendations made by the Avadhani Committee and Sivaraman Committee for the Welfare of the handloom weavers who are out side the cooperative and corporate bodies alongwith those recommendations accepted and implemented by Government;

(b) whether it is a fact that the Abid Hussain Committee which reviewed the Textile policy of 1985 has recommended, that the schemes intended for the welfare of the handloom weavers shall be universal, but not confined to members in cooperatives and corporate bodies, if so, the action taken thereon by Government?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES: (SHRI G. VENKAT SWAMY): (a) The recommendations of Avadhani Committee and Sivaraman Committee on the welfare of the handloom weavers who are outside the cooperative/ corporation fold are as under:

Recommendations of Avadhani Committee

(i) Establishment of a separate body to look after the developmental needs of the handloom weavers outside the cooperative fold. This body may be called National Handloom Financing and Development Corporation.

(ii) Handloom Development Corporation should be set up in all States having concentration of more than one lakh handlooms.

(iii) The work of the Handloom Development Corporations should be based on the marketing concept.

(iv) The working capital finance for marketing activities of the handloom corporations should be made available at concessional rates of interest at part with the priority sector.

(v) Government and Public Sector Enterprices should as a matter of policy, purchase from the handloom sector their entire requirements which can be met by the sector. Such purchases should be made only from cooperative socities or handloom development corporations.

(vi) The Handloom Development Corporations should pay adequate attention to the welfare of the weavers including housing. The corporations should also inculcate saving habits in the weavers. Banks should make provisions for grant of loans for construction of simple and cheap houses, wherever possible, for the weavers.

Recommendation of the Sivaraman Committee

An effective rehabilitation programme will have to be drawn up for covering handlooms outside the effective cooperative fold and the master weavers fold. Such a programme should be limited to the scheme for Intensive development of handlooms during the 5th Plan period. The current position regarding the above recommendations is as under:

(i) The National Handloom Development Corporation was set up by Government of India.

(ii) State handloom development corporation have been set up and are functioning in most of the States.
